

October 2009

The North West LHIN invites you to:

Advancing Health System Transformation through Quality Improvement

Quality improvement initiatives are integral to health system transformation. Many initiatives are currently underway in Ontario. In this session, an overview of quality improvement initiatives through the Ontario Health Quality Council and the potential for health system transformation will be discussed. The session would be of interest to everyone working in health care with an interest in advancing quality improvement.

Eileen Patterson

(Director of Quality Improvement,
Ontario Health Quality Council)
